To,
The candidate (as per list attached)

Subject: Japanese Government [MEXT] Scholarship 2016- Intimation of grant of award and formalities to be completed before leaving for Japan- regarding.

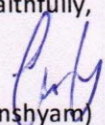

Sir/Madam,

I am directed to refer to your application & subsequent interview for Japanese Government Scholarship 2016 and to inform you that you have been finally selected by the Government of Japan for award of scholarship for the year 2016 in the subject field of _____ (as mentioned in the list).

2. The cost of International travel from India to Japan & back will be governed by Govt. of Japan.
3. The above scholarship is subject to submission of the following documents complete in all respect:
 - (i) an undertaking (in duplicate) on stamp paper of Rs.10/. (Annexure-I)
 - (ii) Health Certificate issued by any Govt. Hospital. (Annexure-II)
 - (iii) Employer's Undertaking Certificate (if employed) (Annexure-III)
4. You are required to submit the aforesaid documents, duly completed to this Department by 25th March, 2016 positively.
5. You are advised to complete all arrangements for passport, Visa, foreign exchange etc. For passport, you are advised to apply directly to the Regional Passport Officer of your area (and not through the District authorities), giving a reference of this letter. The Japan Embassy, New Delhi, will grant the visa.
6. You are also advised to carry some money, which you may require for incidental expenses. You may contact the authorized bank/agency for the purpose.
7. Any request for change in the programme of study fixed by the Japanese authorities will not be entertained.

8. You are requested to intimate the details of your travel arrangements to Mr. Surjit Sinha, Advisor (scholarship), Japan Cultural and Information Centre (Embassy of Japan), G-50, Shantipath, Chanakyapuri, New Delhi 110021 (Fax- 011-24106976).
9. On your arrival in Japan, you are required to report personally to the Indian Mission there and submit the joining report in the enclosed Performa. You should keep the Indian Mission informed about your whereabouts. You are requested to route your correspondence with this Ministry through the Indian Mission there. Direct request will not be entertained. In case of any difficulty, you are advised to seek the help of Indian Mission there.
10. It has been observed that people in foreign countries are eager to know a lot about Indian Philosophy, Culture, History, Administration, Education, and Economics Development etc. Experience has taught us that it is as important to know the facts as to interpret them. You are, therefore, advised in your own interest to equip yourself adequately with the correct information on various topics.
11. Please submit you travel plan, photocopies of Air ticket, Passport & Visa to undersigned before leaving for Japan.
12. On return to India, please report your arrival to this Ministry (ES.3 Section) within two weeks.

Yours faithfully,

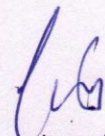

(Ghanshyam)

Under Secretary to the Government of India
