Secretariat of the Governing Bodies/Secretary of the General Conference and the Executive Board
Paris, France
GBS 001

Sir/Madam,

I wish to inform you that I have decided to advertise the post of Director of the Secretariat of the Governing Bodies and Secretary of the General Conference and the Executive Board, in Paris (France).

I enclose herewith information on the duties with which the selected candidate will be entrusted, as well as on the required qualifications, experience and competencies.

As you know, the Secretariat accords great importance to geographical distribution and gender, especially at the senior level. I should be grateful, therefore, if you would assist me in achieving a more balanced geographical distribution, as well as an equitable representation of women, by encouraging appropriate and qualified candidates to apply.

Candidates who wish to be considered for this post shall apply online, via the dedicated UNESCO website, Careers, as soon as possible and well before the closing date, and ensure that applications are well received in the system. Candidates will receive an automatic acknowledgement of receipt by email confirming the registration of their applications.

It is important to note that all applications must be correctly submitted by 13 February 2017 at the latest. Should you have any queries, please send an email to staffingteam@unesco.org.

Exceptionally, candidates without access to the Internet shall submit their application, quoting the post number: "GBS-001", to the following address below:

Director a.i.
Bureau of Human Resources Management (HRM)
UNESCO
7 place de Fontenoy
75352 Paris 07-SP
France

Only applications received at this address within the stipulated deadline can be considered to ensure equitable treatment to all applications received.

To Ministers responsible for relations with UNESCO

Each candidate's application should contain a detailed curriculum vitae and the names of persons from whom professional references may be obtained. The curriculum vitae may be submitted in English or French, preferably on the official UNESCO curriculum vitae form, and should include the following information: date and place of birth; present nationality; gender; university education; present and previous posts held; fields of specialization; publications; knowledge of languages, in particular the degree of ability to write, speak and understand the required languages, as indicated in the attached Vacancy Notice.

It is important that all applications meet the established deadline, thus all care should be taken to ensure that such candidatures reach the Bureau of Human Resources Management prior to the closing date. Applications received after the stipulated deadline cannot be considered.

I cannot overemphasize the importance I attach to having an outstanding candidate to fill this post, and count on your cooperation to achieve this goal through the dissemination of the vacancy announcement to nationals of your country using the channels you consider most appropriate.

Accept, Sir/Madam, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Irina Bokova

Title: DIRECTOR OF THE SECRETARIAT OF THE GOVERNING BODIES AND SECRETARY OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE AND THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

Domain: Administration

Post Number: GBS-001

Grade: D-1

Organizational Unit: Secretariat of the Governing Bodies

Primary Location: Paris, France

Recruitment open to: Internal and external candidates

Type of contract: Fixed-Term

Annual salary: US $130,671

Deadline (midnight, Paris time): 13 February 2017

OVERVIEW OF THE FUNCTIONS OF THE POST

The Secretariat of the Governing Bodies (GBS) brings together the Secretariats of the General Conference (SCG) and of the Executive Board (SCX) in a combined structure that, while retaining two separate and dedicated units for the servicing of each of the governing bodies, ensures a common management and supervision structure for greater synergies between the two.

The General Conference, comprising representatives of all Member States, is UNESCO's primary decision-making body. It determines the policies and main lines of work of the Organization and it approves UNESCO's biennial programme and budget.

The Executive Board, composed of 58 Member States, assures the overall management of the Organization. It examines the Organization's programme and budget, and is responsible for the implementation of the programme adopted by the General Conference.

The Director of the Secretariat of the Governing Bodies (DIR/GBS)/Secretary of the General Conference and the Executive Board is responsible for all matters relating to the smooth functioning of the Secretariats servicing the General Conference and the Executive Board, as well as for their President/Chairperson respectively.

Under the general authority of the Director-General, the incumbent will be responsible for all the activities of GBS, as well as for its administration, and also will serve as Secretary of the Plenary meetings of the two Bodies, as well as of the Bureaux of the General Conference and of the Executive Board. In particular, the incumbent will provide organizational leadership and strategic guidance to GBS in the preparation, coordination and supervision of activities, and the management related to the financial and human resources of the Office.

Specifically, the incumbent will:

- Coordinate the preparation of the groundwork for the General Conference and for the Executive Board (i.e. agendas and timetables of the sessions, calendars for the preparation of working documents, management of staff secondments to SGC/SCX);
- Assist and advise the President of the General Conference and the Chairperson of the Executive Board on all matters relating to the functioning of the two bodies (i.e. ensure an accurate understanding of the duties, rights and responsibilities of the Presidency/Chairmanship, application of the rules/procedures of the General Conference/Executive Board, oversee the preparation of the procedural notes, analytical reports and briefings).
- Provide information and assist Member States and their representatives on all matters relating to the functioning of the General Conference and of the Executive Board;
- Oversee the preparation and translation of the official records of the General Conference's sessions and of the summary records of the Executive Board, as well as their distribution to the Member States;
- Prepare the final reports of each session of the General Conference and of the Executive Board (i.e. lessons learnt, proposals for review and update of the related texts and/or working methods, if necessary);
- Ensure follow-up to General Conference resolutions and to the decisions of the Executive Board;
- Manage on-going contacts between the President of the General Conference, the Chairperson of the Executive Board and the Director-General.

BENEFITS AND ENTITLEMENTS

UNESCO's salaries are calculated in US dollars. They consist of a basic salary and a post adjustment, which reflects the cost of living in a particular duty station and exchange rates. Other benefits include: 30 days annual leave, family allowance, home travel, education grant for dependent children, pension plan and medical insurance. More details can be found on the ICSC Website.

Please note that UNESCO is a non-smoking Organization.

A WRITTEN EXAMINATION MAY BE USED IN THE EVALUATION OF CANDIDATES.

UNESCO is committed to promoting geographical distribution and gender equality within its Secretariat. Therefore, women candidates are strongly encouraged to apply, as are nationals from non- and under-represented Member States. Persons with disabilities equally are encouraged to apply. Worldwide mobility is required as staff members have to serve in other duty stations in accordance with UNESCO's geographical mobility policy.

UNESCO DOES NOT CHARGE A FEE AT ANY STAGE OF THE RECRUITMENT PROCESS.
